THE COURSE

The course is a smooth, closed multiple looped course through Round Rock's Old Settlers Park. The course is swept on Sunday morning prior to the race.

The course starts by the Dell Diamond and continues North on Harrell Parkway. The first road to the right is Aten Loop and follows around the Baseball, Softball and Football Fields. The next right hand turn is at TC Oates and heads towards CR 122. Skaters will make another right turn onto Red Bud Lane (CR 122) and head south towards Hwy 79 and complete the loop back into the park.

Laps: The half marathon participants will loop the course 3 times and full marathoners will loop the course 6 times.

Aid Stations: Two aid stations are provided for participants on the course. Sag wagons and traffic control are on the course at all times.

DIRECTIONS

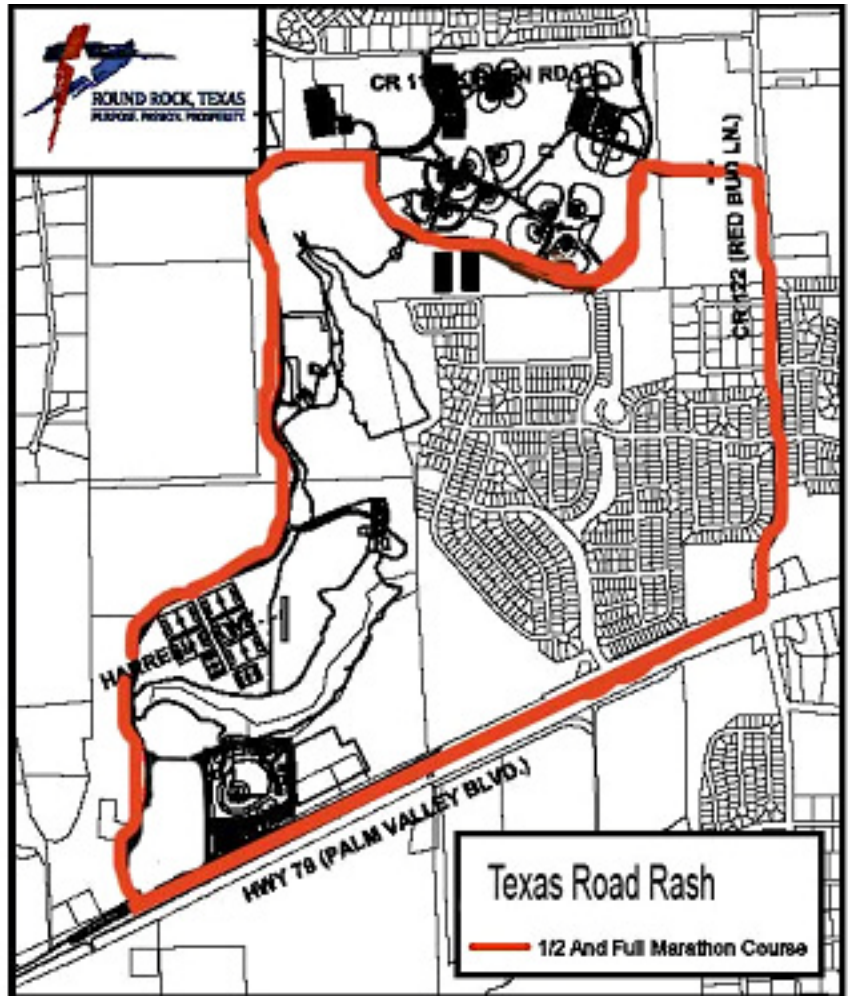

Take IH-35 to Highway 79 in Round Rock. Travel east on Hwy 79 about 3.5 miles. The park is on the North side of Hwy 79 at Harrell Parkway. The entrance is just West of the Dell Diamond.

SAFETY & RULES

Helmets and wrist guards are mandatory. Knee and elbow pads are recommended. Inline skates and quads only.

NO rollerskis, ski poles, skateboards, strollers, bandits, bikes, automobiles, or pets. Headphone use is prohibited.

Skaters are encouraged to stay within the coned area/lanes. For the safety of all skaters, you must have the skating ability and skills to complete the course. Race officials reserve the right to remove skaters from the course. A sag wagon will be provided for medical reasons only. Skaters will be pulled off the course if a sag wagon is used.
